THE HOLY LAND.—Two Women Grinding at a Hand-Mill.

LL5885

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

Two Women Grinding at a Hand-Mill. Palestine in some respects cannot be said to have progressed. Here we see the picture of two women grinding corn with the simple apparatus as mentioned by our Lord nineteen hundred years ago: "Two women shall be grinding at the mill; one shall be taken and the other left."

THE "WIDE WIDE WORLD" SERIES—"THE HOLY LAND." Series IV.

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE" [Regd.] Postcard 7311.

From "THE HOLY LAND," illustrated by F. Fullaylove, R.I. (A. & C. Black).

Printed in England.

THE HOLY LAND.—Two Women Grinding at a Hand-Mill.

LL5885

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

Two Women Grinding at a Hand-Mill. Palestine in some respects cannot be said to have progressed. Here we see the picture of two women grinding corn with the simple apparatus as mentioned by our Lord nineteen hundred years ago: "Two women shall be grinding at the mill; one shall be taken and the other left."

52 Lyncombe Rd
21 June/07
Paper Rubber received. All going well; still dull remedy
Love to all
Yr S. Ernest.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

Mrs J. D Burnett
Huntspill
Bridgwater

CTP17-9

Printed in England.

"THE WIDE WIDE WORLD" Series IV.

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE" [Regd.] Postcard 7311.

From "THE HOLY LAND," illustrated by F. Frith, R.I. (A. & C. Black).